

ADVANCED JUNIOR TRAINING CAMP

The Second Junior Leader Training Camp
Of the
PennDel Network Royal Rangers'
Junior Leadership Development Academy

Who is this camp for?

Adventure & Expedition Ranger boys who have completed the 7th grade by June 30th before the camp dates but have not yet turned 18 years old. They must also have graduated from the JTC.

What does this camp teach?

AJTC focuses on leadership development by serving in group and church leadership roles for young men. AJTC is a required event for the Trail of the Saber Award. AJTC will help boys discover answers to these questions:

- Am I following God's plan for my life today?
- How am I developing my godly character?
- How am I helping (serving) others

Where is this camp?

PennDel Network Royal Rangers holds this camp at Camp Berry in Honey Grove, PA

When is this camp?

The AJTC will be held from August 2 - 5, 2023.

What do I need to do to attend?

Boys must meet the requirements stated above and on the application. Complete and return all application materials by the deadline with the indicated deposit.

Applications can be found on the PennDel Network Royal Rangers website:

www.pdrangers.org/forms/